DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Barre People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, limbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in undermined succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Barre.

Mrs. Annie Gibb, of 21 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "For over a year I had more or less backache, brought on, I think, by a disordered condition of the kidneys. If I brought too much strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains would take me, and I also suffered from headaches and spells of dizziness.
When I overworked or caught cold it always made the trouble worse. I read a good deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. Before I had taken all the pills in this one box my back was relieved, and when I had finished a second box the pains had ceased and I felt better in every way. I am glad to recommend such a reliable remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be in my case."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

querade at the Pavilion.

repaired.

Harris will have a lot of his lively two-steps for you, and some of those dreamy waltzes with and without the moon at the W. M. A. hall Saturday night, December 15.

Rob Roy MacGregor.

The play of "Rob Roy" is so written as to call for considerable individual effort in each character, in almost all of the leading parts it is necessary for the parties playing to be able to sing well in addition to speaking (their lines). In this operatic production there are seventeen singing numbers, consisting of solos, duets, trios, quartets and choruses.

The principal chorus being "Now Trump Over Moss and Fell" with Miss Phillips in the soprano solo part. At Barre opera house, Friday, and Saturday, December 21 and 22. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Not "Jefferson," But "Jeff"

Jefferson is not the real name of Senator Davis of Arkansas. He was christened Jeffries, and has shortened that to Jeff perhaps with the idea of so becoming associated in the general mind with the illustrious Southerner of a former day. The result has been that all the papers expand the Jeff into Jefferson. Our advice to the gentleman is to take sedulous pains to have himself relieved of the responsibility and invidious comparison which must follow if he shall be known in the senatorial records as Jefferson Davis. To satisfy the ordinary requirements of his official station will be difficult enough, without incurring the task of measuring up to the foremost names of American history.

If You Were Offered

An Active Liver for a sluggish one, A Sweet Breath for a bad one,
A Strong Stomach for a weak one, Rosy Cheeks for pale ones.

Would You Trade?

Virginia Velvets

One at Night—
O. K. Next Morning.

Keeps the stomach sweet, the liver active, cleanses the bowels, robs digestion of its terror, fits you for strong physical or mental labor.
Would you trade twenty-five cents for health? That yellow look for a rosy hue? Then go to your druggist, trade 25c for a bottle of "Virginia Velvets." Take one tonight and you will be O. K. in the morning. Then if you could not get another bottle of "Virginia Velvets" for 25c, you would not trade your bottle for 25c.

This is the only remedy ever discovered for constipation and liver troubles that does not cause the nightly pill habit. Unlike all other remedies for constipation, the oftener you use "Virginia Velvets," the less you have to use.
It is not necessary to go on using them forever and in increasing doses. It is the safest, surest, smoothest remedy for constipation ever discovered. No wonder it has been named "Velvets" by those who know. If you should be the one exception and not like them, you can take your bottle back to your druggist and he will refund your money. "Virginia Velvets" are guaranteed by the manufacturers.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FIRST. If he will not accommodate you, we will.
Price 25c per bottle. Sent postpaid to any address on receipt of price.

CAN'T PROVE IT BY HIS MOTHER.

Mrs. Featherston Osler at 100 Refutes Theory of Her Son.

Toronto, Dec. 15.—Forty years past the "chloroform age." Mrs. Featherston Osler was 100 years old yesterday. She is the mother of Dr. William Osler, who is credited with the statement that the end of human usefulness comes at the age of 80 years, and that those who reach that age should no longer burden the world.

Mrs. Osler, even at 100, is anything but past her usefulness or a burden, according to her relatives. Of these there are four sons and one daughter living, and 36 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

"To each and all she has been all their lives a centre of influence for good," said one yesterday. "To see her and be with her is to receive peace, calm and strength into one's own being. Never stirred or excited, she lives as she will die, waiting God's own time."

The centrepiece of the birthday feast was a huge cake with 100 candles. The designs in frosting were emblematic of the four British rulers under which Mrs.

Osler has lived. These are King George III, William IV, Queen Victoria and Edward VII.

Thaw Trial to Cost Mother $500,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 15.—According to a remark made by Mrs. William Thaw to one of her closest friends in this city, a few days ago before returning to New York, she expects that the trial of her son, Harry, will cost her at least $500,- 000.

"While I am prepared to spend the last dollar I have in Harry's defense," she said, "I do not think the whole trial will cost over $500,000. The counsel fees will be not less than $250,- 000."
